Driven From Attack to Defense, Candidate Willson Gets Angry.

From setting the pace for his associate orators in attacking the democratic record in the administration of public affairs, Augustus E. Willson, republican gubernatorial candidate, has been put on the defensive within the past week, responding to leading attacks upon his own record as a lawyer and a man of truth, and in making that defense he has lost his head and now resorts in the last days of the campaign to abuse of the men against whom he is making a race before the intelligent voters of Kentucky. He has been called and proven a falsifier within that space of time and is unable to respond except through use of the words "incompetent" and "tumble-bug," applied to the men who have him on the griddle and are punishing him. "Whom the Gods would destroy they first make mad," is an old saying, and Mr. Willson is certainly mad these days.

The distinguished candidate of the republican party first side-stepped issues of the campaign; he has always been dodging the real live issues, when he declared in a public speech that W. J. Bryan, of Nebraska, had been paid $500 a day to come to Kentucky and make a speech from a special train in the interest of Judge Hager, Gov. Beckham and those running with them in this campaign. For this deliberate falsehood, he was quickly called by State Chairman Henry B. Hines, of the democratic committee, and by the Hon. Urey Woodson, of Owensboro, who was instrumental in getting the distinguished Nebraskan to visit the State this fall. His answer was that he couldn't prove a word he had uttered in the matter nor in any way justify his insult to the great leader of the National Democracy.

In attempting to respond to the serious charge preferred by Hon. J. Morgan Chinn, of Mercer, that he is the hired attorney in Kentucky of the Tobacco Trust, Mr. Willson has placed himself in a most ridiculous and at the same time pitiable condition for a man seeking before the honest and liberty loving people of Kentucky the high office of governor of the State. First declaring that he had been employed by the trust in but a single case in the Kentucky courts, Mr. Willson was forced by a showing of the public records to admit that he had represented one or another branch of the iniquitous trust in other cases. He then sought to extricate himself from the position by declaring that he had been gotten into the second case because of having won a similar case just previous to the filing of this second case. Relying upon this explanation, he declared another man to be the real Kentucky lawyer for the "Tobacco Trust," and gave expression to his real feeling in a declaration that he thought a man could be a trust lawyer and still at the same time properly and equitably administer the affairs of the people and not have any leaning in the direction of his employer of the swollen fortune. Either Mr. Willson isn't the lawyer or astute man whom he has been advertised to be, or he thinks the people of Kentucky, the constituency whom he would like to represent as governor, are slow thinking. He had no sooner declared that he was drawn into the Continental Tobacco Company case, that one in which he sought for them to evade the payment of $100,000 into the public treasury of the city of Louisville as taxes, through employment in a similar case for the Mengel Box Co. than Mr. Chinn, the democrat who first called the attention of the public to his trust connection, disclosed to the public, whom Mr. Willson sought to deceive, that the Box Company is largely held by the Continental Tobacco Co., and by Mr. Duke, the Tobacco King of the United States, and that in reality the company in whose fight he learned the tactics to be employed in the Continental case is but an infant industry of the parent corporation.

Angered intensely at this exposure of his trust and monied connections, this republican lawyer showed his bitterness in attacks of a violent nature upon A. Owsley Stanley, the Congressman and Tobacco Growers Association orator of Western Kentucky, and upon Gov. Beckham, Judge Hager and Congressman Ollie M. James, of the First Congressional District. He referred to the distinguished Kentuckian who has occupied the governor's chair for eight years and who is the nominee of the democratic party for a seat in the United States Senate as "Cripey." He referred to Judge Hager, who has a State wide reputation for ability and honesty in public affairs, as "Incompetent," and dismissed the brainy Congressman from the First District as a "Tumble-Bug." These remarks are well in keeping with a man who would denounce the greatest democratic leader of the century as a paid orator. They are such as would be uttered by a hired man of the wealthy classes of this country who have no regard for the great masses of this country, and who credit no man with being honest or with having an honest purpose. The democrats attacked in such fashion will pay no heed to Mr. Willson's references, knowing them to emanate from a man who has lost his head through realizing that the people of Kentucky are about to turn him down, as have the people of the Fifth Congressional District before this time, when he sought to represent them. Mr. James, in a speech at Danville referred to the anger of Mr. Willson and said that he, James, doubtless recalled the "Tumble-bug," to Mr. Willson for he and other democratic campaigners had been "rolling him around some" since they had gotten him "on the run," as a result of his trust connections.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. C. C. Brown will preach at Walnut Flat next Sunday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock. All are cordially invited to come.

Rev. J. B. Meacham, of Mt. Sterling, has accepted an unanimous call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Ripley, O.

Because her husband drinks and smokes and then kisses their baby Mrs. Alfred Handall, of Fort Dodge, Ia., wants a divorce.

There will be a called meeting of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church at Mrs. W. H. Higgins' Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The greatest and best meeting of the revival services at the Baptist church was that held last night. The entire audience room and annexes were filled, and many were turned away. The church was filled more than 30 minutes before the service commenced by those who came early to get a seat. At the conclusion of the services 19 were added to the church, making in all over 54 who have come out for Christ during this service. Dr. Wharton is doing most of the preaching.—Frankfort Journal.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past 10 years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by all druggists.

"Sir," said the bank president to a clerk whose face showed a three days' growth of beard, "you will have to get shaved."

"But, sir," protested the clerk, "I am growing a beard."

"Do what you like at home," snapped the president, "but I'll have you understand that you can't grow a beard during office hours."

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all druggists.

Attorney General Bonaparte has decided to again take up with the attorney for the rectifiers the question of preparing a case to test the food and drug act in so far as relates to labeling whiskies. Warwick Hough, the attorney for the rectifiers, and the Attorney General have thus far been unable to agree on a statement of facts.

Pierpont Morgan and others emptied millions of dollars into the Stock Exchange, which stopped the ruthless sacrifice of stocks and lent strength to the market. John D. Rockefeller deposited $10,000,000 with one of the city's oldest trust companies to be used in extending aid to such trust companies as might require it.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now 83 years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. These entertainments are designed to give music that soothes, amusement that profits and instruction which is of value. The four numbers are offered for $1.75. This entitles the holder to reserved seats. Go to McRoberts' drug store and purchase season tickets.

FRED G. CONRAD's company playing Monte Cristo gave a most satisfactory entertainment at Walton's Opera House Friday evening to a well-filled house. The acting was all very clever but that of Mr. William Lemie was exceptionally good. The parties composing the company are well-behaved ladies and gentlemen and their deportment while here was perfect. Mr. Conrad will send another attraction here Nov. 22. "A Dangerous Friend" is the name of it and newspaper clippings give glowing accounts of it.

A NUMBER of people from Stanford witnessed the clever performance of "The Union Depot" in Alcorn's Opera House at Hustonville Saturday evening. Some 50 West End people took part and all did well. Miss Price, who manages the play, took the role of Mrs. Butinsky, so admirably filled by Mrs. W. S. Denham, when The Union Depot was given here. Mr. George L. Carpenter made a capital "Uncle Josh," almost equaling Mr. Joseph C. McClary, who "brought down the house" here. Space forbids a mention of all those who took part, but suffice it to say that each one did well. The singing, both solo and quartette, was a feature of the evening's entertainment. A good sum of money was realized, which will go toward improving the interior of the Christian church. The ladies of that church also made considerable money on the splendid supper they served the same evening in Lipps' store-room. It was a splendid meal for the small sum of a quarter.

MR. J. T. CARSON has sold to Mr. G. W. Cogar, of Wayne county, his farm of 178 acres, between Turnersville and McKinney and known as the E. T. Young farm, at $65. Mr. Carson has the Western fever but we hope he will get well of it and remain in Lincoln county.

MR. CHARLES WHEELER, proprietor of the Charles Wheeler Emporium, of Hustonville, has been put in a wrong light by our advertisement setter. Instead of being a "prize" fighter, as the printer made him, he is a "prize" fighter and he always comes out first-best in his "bouts."

SPEND the remaining days between now and the election talking and working for the excellent democratic ticket which appears on our second page. Each gentleman on it is worthy of your support and is the accredited nominee of the party of parties. You helped nominate them now lend your assistance in putting them in office.

FOR SALE.—A new traction engine one separator, self feeder and wind stacker. One saw mill with 300,000 feet of logs to saw at 50c per 100. The owner's only reason for selling is on account of ill health. All this machinery is comparatively new and cost about $3,000. It can be bought for a very low price. See or address L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

OUR brother, Mr. W. E. Walton, of the Frankfort Journal, spent most of last week on the bed of suffering. While in Virginia he slipped and cut a considerable gash in one of his knees. On his arrival at home he begun to doctor the wound and by mistake on one occasion used carbolic acid. The suffering caused was terrific, but we are glad to state that he is "up and about now."

THIS office is printing the ballots to be used a week from to-day by the Lincoln county voters. It takes between 600 and 700 pounds of paper to make them and the trouble and work—only the practical printer can have an idea. There are five tickets and they are as follows: Democratic, Republican, Prohibition, Socialist and Socialist Labor, and two propositions—the constitutional amendment and the court-house. Vote democratic and for the court-house.

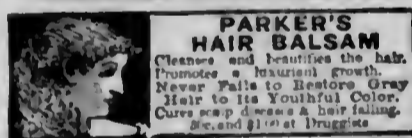

THE first meeting of the "Married People's Club" since their summer adjournment was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McRoberts on Friday evening and the entertainment was in keeping with the reputation of this popular couple for cordial hospitality. The house was lavishly decorated with Southern smilax and handsome potted ferns. Shortly after entering the drawing room, the guests were invited into the hall, where Mrs. W. H. Shanks served frappe from an imported Chinese bowl placed on a table decorated with La France roses, candles and confectations. The guests then played the game of "Nations" until a late hour, when delicious refreshments were served, consisting of a salad of white grapes, nuts and celery on lettuce leaf, apple compote with whipped cream, French peas and mushrooms in timbal shells, beaten biscuit and stuffed olives, with which was served mint punch. These were followed by cut glass bowls of salted almonds. Miss Anna D., the charming little daughter of the host and hostess, materially assisted in adding to the enjoyment of the guests.

MR. J. T. CHADWICK sold his small farm on the Lancaster pike, near Crab Orchard, to John Smith for $1,725 and bought the Lawless lot in Crab Orchard, adjoining his town property. Price private.

WENTZEL.—George, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wentzel, of Ottenheim, died Saturday night after a short illness. He was the pride of the household and much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents in the loss of their little darling. The remains were interred in the burying ground there.

EARLY in June a horse was stolen from Mr. William Huffman, of the Gilberts Creek section, and it was not until Friday that he heard a word from the animal. Then a message came that the horse was in Fayette county in the stable of Cash Graves. Mr. Huffman went over and brought the animal back and yesterday he drove it to town. It had been well cared for and was fatter than when taken away. Frank Todd, of Garrard, who lost a horse about the same time, also found his in Graves' stable. Graves was hunted for and it was found that he is in jail at Williamsburg for stealing a horse in Madison county. We have never heard of the fellow before, but he seems to be a considerable horse thief and we are glad to know that he is behind the bars, where he will let horses alone for awhile at least.

THE first of the series of entertainments in the People's Popular Entertainment course was given in Central Hall Tuesday evening. The attraction was the Harmony Concert Company. Nearly every number of the program was heartily enjoyed and the young ladies responded in a liberal manner. They showed exceptional ability as musicians. Sweet faces and sweet music make a combination that is irresistible, and the old critics who were present admitted that while music hath charms, some musicians have also.—Marietta, Pa. The above testimonial tells you what you will get from the first number in the course. It is hoped that the citizens of the town and county will lend their hearty support to this enterprise and encourage the committee by purchasing season tickets. They may be secured at Mr. W. B. McRoberts' drug store for $1.75 for the four numbers. Remember the date of the first number, Nov. 8—Friday night.

The Burley tobacco growers of Nicholas, Bourbon and Montgomery counties have instructed delegates to the Winchester convention to vote against raising a crop in 1908.

At the sale of Col. Jack Chinn in Mercer, his famous Leonatus stock farm was withdrawn at $110. The farm contains about 400 acres. Col. Chinn says that it will be sold privately at a much higher figure. It is one of the best farms in the State.

LANCASTER COURT.—There were some 300 cattle on the Lancaster market yesterday but a good many were taken away unsold. The best yearling and two-year-old steers brought 4 to 4 1/2c, heifers 3 to 3 1/2c, butcher stuff was slow 2 1/2 to 3c. Some aged mules sold at $100 to $175. The horse market was dull.

At the sale of the late Joseph Coffey's effects at Moreland last week, 60 1,200-pound cattle brought 4c and 20 1,000-pound cattle 3 1/2c. They were bought by Lutes & Myers. Horses brought $50 to $175; mules, $100 to $175; hay, 75c per hundred. Farming implements sold well. A large crowd was present and bidding brisk.

At a meeting of the tobacco growers who favor pooling, held in Owensboro, resolutions were adopted condemning any violence of intimidation that has been used to induce growers to sign the pooling contract. It is the opinion that if there is to be trouble it will begin when farmers who have sold are ready to deliver their crops.

One of the best foods for making hens lay is lean meat. When the supply of eggs fail, stop all other feeds and feed lean meat or liver, any cheap meats will answer, and it will be found superior to anything else that can be used. Green bone, containing a large portion of lean meat, is even better, provided the fat portion is removed from the bone. It will be found cheaper than grain, because it will make eggs. One reason why the hens fail to lay when they have plenty of grain is that they require a change, and meat supplies the needful. If the hens are fat, give one ounce of lean meat each day, allowing no feed for a week or two, and watch the results.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of to-day; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

WISDOM ABOUT EGGS.

1. In choosing eggs always pick out those that have a dull, opaque-looking shell in preference to those that have a shiny one.
2. To boil a cracked egg, wrap it up in paper before putting it in water; none of the contents will then escape.
3. Eggs that have been cooked (boiled) and not eaten can be treated as uncooked ones and boiled over again the same time as before.
4. To insure an egg not crackling when boiling hold it in a spoon containing hot water for a few seconds before placing it in boiling water.

A Criminal Attack

on an inoffensive citizen is frequent little made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

Little Ills of Children

Mothers and all others who have children about the house cannot do their families a better service than to learn of simple and reliable remedies that correct children's ailments. Many grown people are suffering today for the ignorance or negligence of those who had charge of their bringing up.

Children are prone to constipation, and if it isn't corrected early, the bowels get in the habit of not working normally and soon chronic constipation results that may last off and on all through life. Then children eat almost continually and as a consequence indigestion sets in soon followed by worms, or stomach pain, or diarrhea, or any one of a dozen other troubles. To say that it will right itself is putting altogether too much faith in chance. It is trying with the child's present and future health.

A better way is to give the child a dose of something intended to cure that very trouble, and nothing better for the purpose is known than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It never grips but acts gently and as it has a pleasant taste the child will not refuse to take it. Buy a 50-cent bottle of your druggist and save the child from sickness. You should remember that a child whose stomach is in good working order is not likely to catch colds and fever diseases. Mrs. Curry, of Trowbridge, Ill., attributes the remarkable health of her child to Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which she gives regularly in these disorders. Mrs. Everett, of Liverpool, Ill., frank to say that the present good condition of her five-year-old boy is entirely due to this wonderful remedy. Try it to your own family and see if you cannot share these opinions. Every bottle is guaranteed to do exactly as we claim, and the purity of ingredients is also vouched for.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent in their home by addressing the package to: "The Free Test, Pepsin Syrup, 119 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill." The remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Get rid of indigestion, flatulency, acidity, heartburn, headache, dizziness, nervousness, etc. A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: No. 1,000,000 Sold and Sure as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.
